

Information for Bankruptcy Clients

Debtor

Spouse

1. Do not continue to use credit cards.
2. For a Chapter 7 petition, an individual is allowed to exempt no more than $150.00 in any one bank account at the time of filing the bankruptcy petition. A married couple is allowed to exempt no more than $300.00 in any one bank account or no more than $150.00 in each of two accounts. Discontinue all use of checking accounts two weeks before we will file the petition so that all checks will have cleared before filing. You may use your account again one week after the bankruptcy petition is filed.
3. If you are involved in any auto accident after your first interview with the attorney, you must notify our office.
4. If you have direct deposit into your bank account of your paychecks or any other type of income, you are responsible for notifying the bank to stop this.
5. If you have payroll deductions from your paycheck for payment of any type of debt or loan, you are responsible for notifying your employer to stop this.
6. If there is any year for which you have not filed a required tax return of any kind, you must mention this to the attorney. If you expect to receive a tax refund, your bankruptcy trustee may claim a portion or all of your refund.
7. If there are changes of any kind on the information you have given us on the bankruptcy questionnaire (phone number, address, marital status, employment, income or expenses, sale of any property, additional creditors, etc.), it is important that you notify our office of these changes immediately.
8. If you are keeping your apartment or home, you must make all rental and mortgage payments when due after the petition has been filed. Also make all payments on all secured debts in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy when you wish to retain the security.
9. Payments to the trustee in a Chapter 13 bankruptcy must begin 30 days after the bankruptcy petition has been filed.
10. If you move to a new address after the petition has been filed, you must notify our office promptly. We will correct our records and also notify the court of the change.
11. Do not make any major financial decisions (to buy, sell, or give something away) without checking first with your attorney. Your attorney will discuss with you any possible complications or problems that these actions might cause.
12. If a judgment has been entered against you a lien may have attached to your home or other real property. We recommend a title search to locate liens. If liens exist, it is possible to remove them by taking appropriate legal action. These services are available for an additional fee. Hourly rates apply. Talk to your attorney if you believe a lien may have attached to your home or other real property.

For assistance with the questionnaire, call Dorothy (602) 277-4441, extension 247

Pre-Bankruptcy Worksheet

I. General Information

The law under which your bankruptcy will be filed is a Federal Law and your bankruptcy will be filed in the U.S. District Court. In order to protect your rights under the Bankruptcy Act, certain rules must be observed, including the following:

1. DO NOT make any promises to your creditors concerning payments to them after your bankruptcy has been filed.
2. DO NOT DISCUSS your case with any of your creditors or mention your possible bankruptcy to them. If necessary, refer them to your attorney.
3. DO NOT attempt to conceal any of your property.
4. DO MAKE a full and complete disclosure to your attorney.
5. The attorney fees that you have paid are for the attorney representing you at the first meeting of creditors and preparation of the bankruptcy petitions, schedules, and statements which will be filed on your behalf. In the event that your case requires additional attorney's services, it will be necessary to charge you an additional amount for the additional services.

If you fail to observe any of the above general instructions, you risk losing your rights to a discharge of your debts and/or may still be liable for some or all of your debts following a bankruptcy.

II. Personal Information

Please supply your answers in the spaces provided as completely as possible (USE ADDITIONAL SHEETS IF NECESSARY). Deliver this information to our main office at 7th Ave. and Thomas, Phoenix, Arizona. Remember that it is important to list ALL DEBTS, even if you dispute them or have no intention of paying them. All names and addresses for your creditors must be complete, including ZIP CODES.

This information will be used by your attorney in preparing your Petition for Bankruptcy. The information you supply will enable him to complete this task more quickly and expedite your case.

If you are uncertain of any answers, indicate so and your counsel will discuss these further with you.

If you don't understand a question, write "Don't Understand" next to the question. Do not guess at any answers. WARNING: THE OFFICIAL BANKRUPTCY FORMS WILL BE PREPARED USING THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE AND YOU WILL BE REQUIRED TO SIGN THE OFFICIAL BANKRUPTCY FORMS UNDER OATH. THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE COMPLETE AND ACCURATE INFORMATION ON THE BANKRUPTCY FORMS CAN CONSTITUTE A FEDERAL CRIME AND MAY RESULT IN YOUR DEBTS NOT BEING DISCHARGED IN BANKRUPTCY. For any questions that request an address, be sure to give the ZIP CODE. Answer all questions that pertain to you. If you are married, your spouse should provide answers to the questions if her answer would be different from yours.

All of the information asked for in the questionnaire is important!

Answer every question carefully and completely. If the answer to a question is "No" or "None" or "N/A" mark that. Leave no question blank. If more space is needed attach additional sheets. We must have complete and accurate information in order to prepare your bankruptcy papers properly. Make a note of all questions you do not understand or cannot fully answer for discussion with our office.

REMEMBER: The more time you take to fill out this questionnaire, the less time it will take to file your bankruptcy!

Creditor Information

In the following sections, you are asked to list your creditors. Be sure to list all of them, even those whom you intend to pay. Inaccurate or incomplete answers may result in a complete loss of your right to a discharge of this debt in bankruptcy. Even if you dispute a debt or part of a debt, list the total amount the creditor claims, with a notation of the dispute. If you do not know the exact amount that you owe, call the creditor and verify the information. You must give all information requested.

Be sure creditors' addresses are correct. These addresses will be used by the court to send notices of your bankruptcy proceeding to your creditors. If a creditor does not receive notice, the bankruptcy will not discharge your obligation to this creditor.

Include zip codes with all addresses.

BE CAREFUL: Any debt you do not list will not be discharged in bankruptcy!

If you have a VA or FHA loan on your home, list the VA and FHA office that processed the loan as well as the company to which you make your payments.

If you owe more than one debt to the same creditor, include information about each debt.

If you borrowed money from a finance company, and now are dealing with a different office, you must list each office as a creditor. This is also true of VA and FHA loans.

If anyone cosigned on an unpaid loan for you, you must list that person as a creditor, as well as the company that made the loan.

If you have cosigned on an unpaid loan for someone else, you must list that person as a creditor, as well as the company that made the loan.

The following is a list of typical debts. It is not intended to be complete, but merely to give you examples of types of obligations. You must list every debt you have, not just those appearing on this list.

1. Money owed to any branch of the government (for example, Small Business Administration, Social Security Administration, VA, FHA, DES).
2. Money you owe a former spouse (for example, back alimony or child support, property settlement).
3. Back mortgage payments or back rent.
4. Debts secured by deeds of trust.
5. Credit card or revolving charge accounts with banks, oil companies, department stores.
6. Purchase contracts for automobiles, appliances, furniture, etc.

7. Judgments against you. (Include names and addresses of the creditor and creditor's attorney and all co-defendants.)
8. Lawsuits pending against you. (Include names & addresses of the creditor and creditor's attorney and all co-defendants.)
9. Debts secured by liens outstanding against any of your property. (Include name & address of person securing lien and his attorney.)
10. Medical bills.
11. Debts for property that has already been repossessed.
12. Loans on which you have cosigned (even if the person you cosigned for is paying the loan).
13. Loans on which someone else has cosigned for you.
14. Loans owed friends and relatives.
15. Loans you obtained for someone else's benefit.
16. Student loans. (Enter names & addresses of the actual creditor, any servicing agent, and the guarantors of the loan. Include the date when payments on the loan were to begin.)
17. Loans from finance companies.
18. Debts to utility companies.
19. Business debts for which you are or may be liable.
20. Fines and restitution.
21. Unpaid taxes. (Include the dates when the tax returns were filed.)
22. Loans against retirement plans or cash surrender value of life insurance policies.
